

How Does David Feel?

Activity by Carrie Manchester, MS, CCC-SLP
Carrie's Speech Corner
<http://carriesspeechcorner.blogspot.com>

Graphics by Graphics Factory.
www.graphicsfactory.com

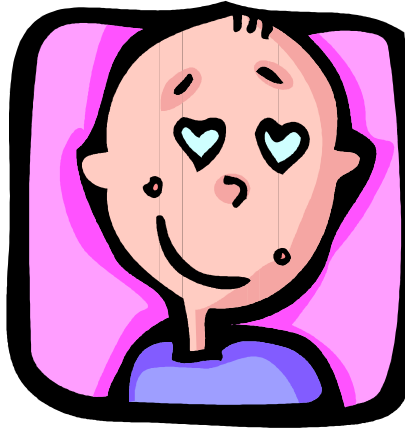

Directions: Use the cards on pages 2 & 3 to teach emotions/feelings. Ask students to brainstorm scenarios that would cause them to experience the emotions. Read the scenarios on pages 4-6. Ask students to identify how the boy (David) would feel in each situation. For older students, you may wish to expand on the activity by asking why he feels that way.

Carrie's Speech Corner

angry

Carrie's Speech Corner

in love

Carrie's Speech Corner

unsure

Carrie's Speech Corner

cold

Carrie's Speech Corner

hurt

Carrie's Speech Corner

furious

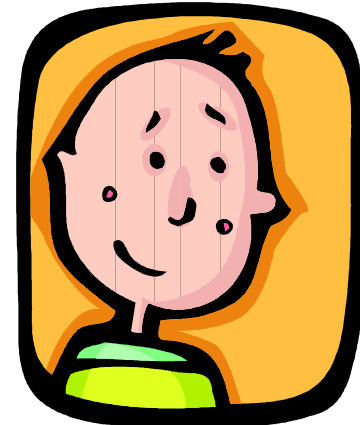

Carrie's Speech Corner

worried

Carrie's Speech Corner

confused

Carrie's Speech Corner

content

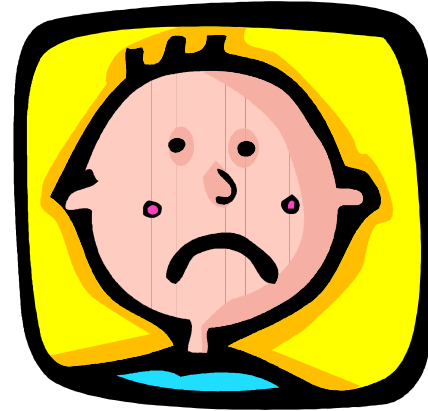

Carrie's Speech Corner

happy

Carrie's Speech Corner

hot

Carrie's Speech Corner

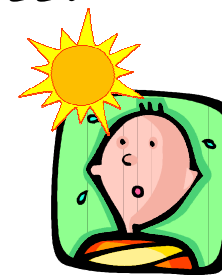

sad

David got a new bike
for his birthday.
How do you think
he felt?

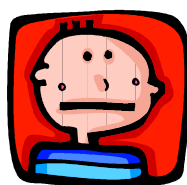

Carrie's Speech Corner

David left his coat on the bus. How did he feel on the playground
during recess?

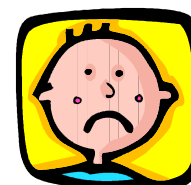

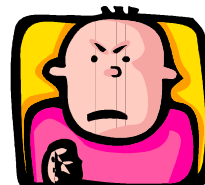

Carrie's Speech Corner

David's father is taking David and his sister to visit a new friend. How do you think David feels?

Carrie's Speech Corner

David's teacher introduced a new math concept. David doesn't understand. How do you think he feels?

Carrie's Speech Corner

David got a Valentine from a girl in his class.
How do you think
he felt?

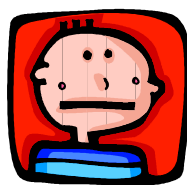

Carrie's Speech Corner

David is wearing a heavy sweater on a hot day. How do you think he feels?

Carrie's Speech Corner

David fell off his new bike and broke his leg.
How do you think
he feels?

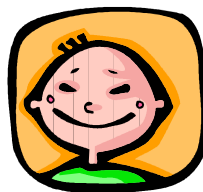

Carrie's Speech Corner

David's mother told him that he couldn't play with his new video game.
How do you think
he felt?

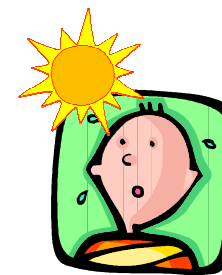

Carrie's Speech Corner

David's friend called him a name that was not nice. How do you think he felt?

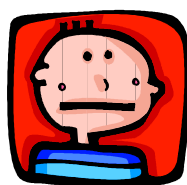

Carrie's Speech Corner

David is having a good day at school. How do you think he feels?

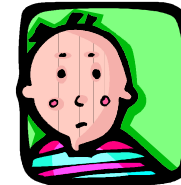

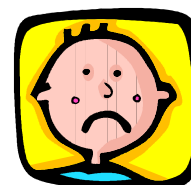

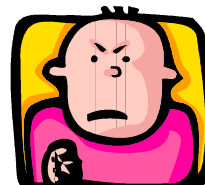

Carrie's Speech Corner

David has a new student in his class. The teacher sat the boy right next to David. How do you think he feels?

Carrie's Speech Corner

David's sister broke his favorite toy. How do you think he felt?

Carrie's Speech Corner